

Pilot

The image shows a person in a dark shirt and cap sitting at a desk, typing on a keyboard. A teal circle highlights the person. In the background, there are two computer monitors on stands. The left monitor displays a green screen with the word 'Pilot' in red. The right monitor displays a red screen with the word 'Drone' in white. Between the monitors, two red circles are connected by a red line, pointing to a label 'Drone'. The room has whiteboards with checkered patterns and some handwritten notes. There are also some cardboard boxes on a desk to the right.
